Non Implementation of judgement-order(s) passed by Erstwhile H.P. State Administrative Tribunal in OA No. 5858/2017 in Ex. Pet.2021 titled as Sandeep Mandyal &ors Vs State of HP &ors
...../.....

Sir,

It is intimated that various instances have come up recently where Erstwhile H.P. State Administrative Tribunal has passed judgement(s)/order(s) but the same have not been complied with till date. Feeling aggrieved, the incumbents have filed Execution Petition(s), before the Hon'ble High Court and such cases were listed during the past one week. In these cases, the Hon'ble High Court has cautioned the Respondent(s)-Defendant(s) for disobeying and disregarding the judgement/order(s). In some matters pertaining to HRTC, the Hon'ble Court was pleased to impose heavy costs and in another matter pertaining to Health Department, the Hon'ble Court has been pleased to issue notice of contempt against the Respondents/Departmental Officers for non implementation of the judgement(s). Meaning thereby that non implementation was being viewed seriously by the Hon'ble Court.

2 In this background, the matter was discussed with Ld. Advocate General; and accordingly, you are directed to look into all matters decided by Hon'ble Court(s) and to ensure that the judgement/orders so passed are implemented in letter and spirit expeditiously and not later than 10 days and/or to assail the judgment/order(s) before the Competent Court of law if permissible, expeditiously within the same period, failing which, you shall be responsible for the adverse orders or consequences for non compliance and disobedience, if any.

3 However, the action taken in the matter either by way of implementation or by assailing the judgement(s); be furnished to this office expeditiously on priority, failing which, this office shall not be responsible for the adverse orders or consequences, if any. Copy of Ex.Pet. is enclosed herewith.

Encls:- (as above)

Yours sincerely,

For (RANJAN SHARMA)
